

TOWNE TALKE

"Just for Fun"

By RAS BERRY

Al Bond he gets W. Post in the barber's chair and Wallace's head is tilted way back and Al is shaving him and just when Al gets the razor right over the jugular vein he says say Wallace do you suppose you could extend that three note of mine at the bank.

And now what Wallace wants to know is when a man says yes under such conditions isn't it fair for him to change his mind.

After all says Al you can't get the best of no banker and I suppose that the next thing I hear is that Wallace has raised the rent on me.

I says I don't care if he raises the rent but I think the city should ought to charge you some rent for all the space you barbers take up standing on the sidewalk making wise cracks at decent folks who pass by.

Gene DeBra says he was up to Eadsburg Sunday and went down in the Windy mine and he says it was so hot when you come up out of the mine that all you had to do was stick a dead cigar in your mouth and start sucking and the first thing you knowed you was smoking.

Gene also says what you save in shaving soap by growing a mustache is offset by what you lose by not being able to smoke your cigars so short.

Mayor John Dennis says everything is okay and the new board is still getting along pretty good with the people because they ain't done nothing yet.

The bus mgr. who is also a bachelor he says he is sorry that he is connected with the paper because his affiliation makes it impossible for him to enter the big prize contest and he thinks there may come a time when he could use one of them diamond rings.

And Don Findley hears him say it and Don says Don't flatter yourself, Grover. Nobody was hurt.

They put up a big talking machine in the show window of contest prizes and this here talking machine shuts off most of the light from the editors window and Dave Turner he says he guesses that won't make much difference because there ain't been much light in our editorials recently anyways. Gee Whiz.

Well, I says, whenever they is a talking machine around, be it mechanical or human, they never is much light.

Ed Huddleston come in to Hardware Reeve's store during the big sale that Hurum is putting on now and he seen a sine that says All Bolts 1/4 Off and he says to Hurum ain't you got no bolts full length.

Hurum says yes you can make one for the door.

Nix, says Ed, the door's already bolted.

Well, says Hurum, just give it a wrench.

Them guys must be nuts.

Bill Nye was in to lunch at Harry Roberts and he was kidding Harry and he yells over Hey Harry they is a fly in this soup and Harry says Oh that's all right we won't charge you extra.

Harry Dolley who was setting nearby and never misses a chance to advertise the drug store he butts in and says Bill they ain't never any flies in our ointment.

WHAT IS A ONE-CENT SALE?

It is a sale where you buy an item at the regular price, then another item of the same kind for one cent. As an illustration: The standard price of Klenzo Dental Creme is 50c, you buy a tube at the price and by paying 1 cent more, or 51 cents, you get two tubes. Every article in this sale is a high class standard piece of merchandise, just the same as is sold every day at the regular price.

A PROFIT SHARING METHOD OF ADVERTISING

This Sale was developed by the United Drug Co. as an advertising plan. Rather than spend large sums of money in other ways to convince you of the merit of these goods, they are spending it on this sale in permitting us to sell you a full size package of high standard merchandise for 1 cent. It costs money to get new customers, but the loss taken on this sale will be well spent if the goods please you.
